Agreement of Confidentiality

LEADERSHIP GWINNETT
STATE OF GEORGIA, COUNTY OF GWINNETT

The undersigned, in consideration of having been selected and agreed to participate in the 2023-24 Leadership Gwinnett Program, by the execution of this document, hereby acknowledges, agrees, and covenants the following:

The maintaining of confidentiality of all information acquired, opinions expressed, and all statements made by me and others during the program is a critical element of the success of the Leadership Gwinnett Program. All statements, written or oral, whether by Leadership Gwinnett participants, speakers, group facilitators, or others, are “off the record” and are not to be published, repeated, or attributed either orally or in writing, by me. Under no circumstances will I discuss information, acquired or statements made during the Leadership Gwinnett Program. I will not make any information, written or verbal, available to any person outside the program.

All matters of the Leadership Gwinnett Program are confidential and should in no case be revealed to any unauthorized person.

I acknowledge that my keeping the confidences and avoidance of even the appearance of breaching confidence is an important part of my participation of the Leadership Gwinnett Program and the other participants and is a condition of my continued involvement in the Leadership Gwinnett Program.

Confidentiality is essential in maintaining the professional reputation and integrity of the Leadership Gwinnett Program.
